When you look to the sky
And you can't see anything
The clouds are black
It's raining strong

When you look to the sky
And you see the human cry
You think what's going on here
This is the time for the

HEAVEN RISE

You run alone so far away
So far away your lonely way
You have fear this day is dark
This dream is true the way is hard

This miracle is for the enemies of our life
They want to fight but
They are to faint for the

HEAVEN RISE

Apparent is this your destiny
That you're pursuit of the
HEAVEN RISE

You only want to die
Before you go through the
HEAVEN RISE

You want to fight for your future
But you go under in
HEAVEN RISE

You run straight ahead
In the phenomenon of the
