No one beware of hatred
Self-portraits of inhumanity
Dark abyss of the spirit
Main focus: the defence of dignity

Blood and honor
There's no regret
The reign of vengeance
Has yet begun

The tide has never turned
To eat or to be eaten
Since the beginning of time
Life's a struggle for survival

The dark side in all of us
Prevails from time to time
When glory gets scornfulness
And affection turns into animosity

No guarantee in life
Assures you to survive
Caveman instincts
At least too less distinct

Send you right to heaven
Rise up in a killing spree
The knights of retribution
The killer instinct is uncaged
The knights of retribution
Deranged avenger on their way

Send you right to heaven
Rise up in a killing spree
This is the final judgment
This is your nemesis
The knights of retribution
