

Heaven Shall Burn "You Will Be Godless"

Godless old men, confess your sins, why don't you practise what you preach

An isolated super state, lead and controlled by rotten tyrants Detached from this world and disconnected from reality
Maintaining power is the highest destination Supressing real enlightenment and ruling by oppression Misanthropic doctrines, committed only to their profit

Follow them and godless you will be Preaching love but feeding hatred Forgiving sins, concealing crimes Just follow them and godless you shall be Infallible, an ultimate authority, without any explanation Manipulation, profiteering, money greedy hypocrites, power-hungry dotards downtrodden believers, trapped within archaic structures

Why don't you practise, what you preach

Follow them and godless you will be Feeding the swayer, taunting the starving worship creation, while agonizing creatures

Black hearts beating under snow-white cassocks
Their golden beringed hands, pray to a distressed icon Ancient traditions of justifying dark suppressors
