[Ben Sotto]

Feeling like an outcast of society, a man meets an alien,
who shows him that his destiny is not to live on Earth,
but to accomplish great things on another planet.

[intro :]

The future is nowhere
It comes to you like a divine star

[1st verse :]

One night when nightmares invaded my head
He appeared to me from the sky
Floated in the air, it dazzled my eyes
And he carried me for a flight

[bridge :]

too tired to understand
I crossed the galaxy
Universe of fire I saw
Showed me so many ways
Then I felt lost in time
I'm a hero, an alien is a friend of mine

[chorus :]

By a fantasy I have found my destiny
Then I knew, that all over the clouds of human kind
Exists another destiny
A world where is growing all love

[2nd verse :]

IN his machine lights surrounded me
Flashed on my face so bright

Left behind me my memories and griefs
Run away after the past

[bridge :]

So tired to understand
I crossed the galaxy
Universe of fire I saw

Showed me so many ways
Then I felt lost in time
I'm a hero, an alien is a friend of mine

[chorus :]

By a fantasy I have found my destiny
Then I knew, that all over the clouds of human kind
Exists another destiny
A world where is growing all love

[solo (Fred)]

[chorus :]

By a fantasy I have found my destiny
Then I knew, that all over the clouds of human kind
Exists another destiny
A world where is growing all love
By a fantasy I have found my destiny
A world where is growing all love
