She was shy her self belief still left a lot to be desired
You compared her to her heroes she could not but feel inspired

She was taken in she believed all the things you said were real Never noticed she was feeling just as you meant her to feel

What you say and what you mean are very different things indeed what I'd give to hear you say
"It's love, OK"

Never say I'm the one who lied
I cross my heart and hope to die
Never say I'm a clueless tease
And most of all don't itchy chin me All she said was she was trying to believe in something new (in something new) How the hell did you inform that that she's leaving you I forbid a single word to leave your lips Till I've explained (till i've explained) well, that's it you've had your chance I won't tell you the truth again

She is no longer fooled by your sad attempts to be cool She could still love you though if you'd see her as an equal if you'd just say what she wants you to if you'd just say "I love you as you" if you'd just say "please, don't say we're through"
if you'd just shed your pride
But you never do.
