[INTRO]

I'm lost in a sphere what am I doing here
the time machine
my ultimate dream
back in time
the gateway now is mine should I stop at last and never see the past
tonight it will be done and I will be the one to discover to the core like no other did before

[VERS 1]

I just stepped into a time when man fought to be alive the only thing they wanted the right to choose for their life to leave as free men their own style but the time moves on and we're here just for a while then we die

[VERS 2]

I'm going even beyond the ancient traces of man a paradise so divine will never come back again we'll destroy it in the end but time moves on and we're here
just for a while
then we die

[BRIDGE]

WHOOHH
what is next to see
whatever happens to me I have no fear, ready for more on my mission to seek and explore but I am lost and all alone but some day I will get home

[CHORUS]

but now I need to go
cause I need to know what the future will be like I want to see a new horizon that's why I must go on

cause I need to know about the future of mankind I need to go

that's why I am here
that's my destiny
there will be a time
peaceful and divine

and I do believe in tomorrow tomorrow will be so sweet and the time moves on but we can change our fate it's not too late!

[SOLO]

I 've been traveling the vast of time to see at last a gateway to a land
to be free in the end

but I'm lost and all alone but some day I will be home

[CHORUS]
