[Rettke]

Frontpage news again and you're thinking of your deeds
D' you have all the things that a real good man needs?

They don't like your hair, they couldn't realize
You're a dreamer too, what a big surprise

[CHORUS]
CRY IT OUT
Listen to your tears
CRY IT OUT
Live without a fear

You don't understand and your head is turning round
They don't wear a crown and you don't have to bow down

You haven't been at home for such a long, long time
To stand one's ground for all these years, is it a crime?

Don't be a fool at all if you're waiting for a call

Oh, breaking the rules and saving the day
I believe in you going your way
