Planet Earth, can you hear me?
Planet Earth, can you hear me?

Standing on the shore
The wind is blowing fast with power
Like a fortress wall
The black rain is smashes, pouring down
Feelin' all alone
And no one there to keep me warm

Sun has turned into a black
And frozen piece of coal
In this poison gas
No creature even can survive
Feeling all alone
'Cause I'm the one who's stays alive

I hear a voice from the dark, it says
"Dirty fools, look what we have done
Frozen tears in a black hole sun"
My heart is dying, my soul's gettin' cold
I never listened to warnings they told

Planet Earth, please forgive me
I'm mistaken, this heaven on earth
Is a crying shame
We have the choice to proclaim

Every day I watch the news
They say the world is bleeding
We're responsible
For every little peace of ground
Hand in hand
We have the chance to say it loud

I hear a voice from the dark, it says
"Dirty fools, look what we have done
Frozen tears in a black hole sun"
My heart is dying, my soul's gettin' cold
I never listened to warnings they told

Planet Earth, please forgive me

I'm mistaken, this heaven on earth
Is a crying shame

My heart is dying, my soul's gettin' cold
I never listened to warnings they told
It's a shame for everyone

Planet Earth, please forgive me
I'm mistaken, this heaven on earth
Is a crying shame

Planet Earth, please forgive me
I'm mistaken, this heaven on earth
Is a crying shame
We have the choice to proclaim
