[Playa Fly]

I bring fourth to you the champion a man that so outstandin' the captain has landed and said that he's commandin' he love to use his vocal cords when Black work out on cord boards see thoroughly he's golden and he have you suckaz paronoid from phony allegations too faulty accusations he takes your situations on any given occasion he don't hide he don't duck
and everyone knows he so buck I mean this boy he gets aroouunndd a bit and shows out when he shows up and smokes up til the roach cock drinks up to the last drop catch this cat in the club or in your hood you'll get your spot rocked he's potent
he's lethal he'll simple defeat you to maintain his reign as the King he will beat you see highly he's powered and nowhere near coward he's smart with heart the size of de Iffle Tower he'll hit you like poison he'll split you like swords men and shoot back that venom that you snakes have shot toward him

[Chorus]

Fly mob, the Universal Heartthrob aye, aye, aye yo Fly mob
the Universal Heartthrob
aye, aye, aye yo Fly mob
the Universal Heartthrob
thats right, I said Fly mob

the Universal Heartthrob

[Playa Fly]

Well did I mention this cat was golden but not always so outspoken quite just a lil' church mouse scopin', listenin', and soakin' he laid back gettin' hi and fly til he just couldn't take no more funk-n-buck erupt from him like lava from volcanos and everyone wanted to clizown bound for funkytizown and everywhere that this cat went like the Rock, he layed the smackdown like Goldie, layed the mac down breakin' suckers off properly he chased his pay with craze and said ain't no one here stoppin' me lil' homez kept on, gettin' on all night to the day, like mind blown travelin' through different time zones on microphones gettin' his rhyme on he love to get his shine on but he love more gettin' his grind on and he'll bend you over backwards like you don't have a backbone he'll bust through any road block he's loced out with his crown cock with a grin that's so king, it'll skim skin off yo buttocks on Moet he's a masterpiece on Remi Martin a catasterfe mixed there right there with drizo and you have what he has grown to be The UNIVERSAL HEARTTHROB, The UNIVERSAL HEARTTHROB

[Chorus]

[Mista Tito]

It don't matter by BET
It don't matter by MTV
It don't matter by HIV all that matters is GOD all that matters is M the 3 It don't matter how hard we shine It don't matter, its all in time It don't matter, I'm gone get mine It don't matter how big your dubbs It don't matter if you sold drugs It don't matter how big your grudge all that matters that I show love

It don't matter how drunk you get It don't matter boy who you with It don't matter how big your click all that matters, don't fuck with this It don't matter, M3 come hard It don't matter Miami gone mob It don't matter Flizy gone mob It don't matter Tito gone mob It don't matter if he hit or miss It don't matter boy we won't quit It don't matter that I'm on this diss It don't matter who finish this

[Playa Fly]

This one kind of know for show will shine so bright but have you lookin' for him with a flashlight in broad daylight
I say his game so tight, and he keeps his aim on lock right on his target and the bullseye, so don't get shot this cat is a projection of perfection a man made of blessings, who mobs with his brother Punch
and God so he's destine to rise up, blind shine those who known as traders and he march for the stars, breakin' hearts and he prays for haters so mane, it don't matter where bout he go It don't matter which way he roll It don't matter which ground he play all that matters is he get pay It don't matter if you think he soft It don't matter if you say he hard It don't matter whatever your thought all that matters is that he mob
