[Intro: Heavy D]

Yeah, UHH!

Well, alright (DAMN!)

[Chorus: Marley Marl 2X]

I got a funny feeling, something is going on

Had a good girl, treated her wrong

I got a funny feeling, something is going on

Treated her wrong, now my good girl is gone

[Verse 1: Heavy D]

I got a funny feeling, something is going on

Woke up one morning and my girl was gone

Couldn't figure out what the hell went wrong

Didn't think she'd leave cause she wasn't that strong

But I was wrong

Now I'm the one that's hurt, quiet as kept

Reading quotes from her note that read a step cause I slept

Now what am I supposed to do? - How's it supposed to be?

How could you leave me? I mean, damn I'm Heavy D!

Boy was I dumb, thought I was the one

Bragging on her in front of her friends just for the fun

I wish I would've known, I would've begged her to stay

Now, Heavy D's Heavy Dumb cause his girl ran away

[Chorus - 2X]

[Verse 2: Heavy D]

Now as the days go by, I'm steady trying to handle it

The more I think about it, the more I untangle it

Boy, was I a fool? - treated her cruel

Straight-up disrespect for the sake of being cool

Sitting all day, and I ask myself why?

I guess you never miss your water til your well runs dry

I figured I was bigger by calling the shots, planning the plots

Taking advantage of what I got, I should've stopped

So now I'm lonely, from acting like a phony

Bugging something over, even mama didn't know me

I tried to call her, but she won't call back
She won't call back, she won't call back

[Chorus - 2X]

[Heavy D] Determine!

[Verse 3: Heavy D]

Now everyday is just another day in almost where I stay
Not in the mood to play because my girlie ran away
I guess I really learned my lesson, dig it! I'm through
The next time I get a good girl, I know what to do
No more Mr. Rough or Tough-neck, acting like a drugincest peck
Ending up the subject in shipwreck
Cause I got better plans, and I'm a better man
With a better Executive cards in my hand
I wonder how she's doing, where she's at and how she
be
Is everything Okay? - do you still remember me?
And even if you don't, you're on my mind
Cause a new good girl is just too hard to find

[Chorus - 2X]

[Outro: Soul IV Real]

Alright, keep going..
Alright, keep going..
Alright, keep going..
Alright, keep going..
