And still we waste our lives
for lack of better words i've come undone again
and i know its already been said no hope for me
so save your fucking breath just another attempt to try and make sense
and i don't understand how a thousand letdowns broke this man will this ever end
im running a race
running in place
i'll never win
and you already know
i can't sleep
im so afraid of what i'll see so i wait until daybreak then i know im safe

we all have demons we try to hide disguised as anger tearing us up inside x2 and they won't stop

TEARING US UP INSIDE
THE DEMONS THAT WE HIDE
