

Heavy Hearted "From Your Son"

Visit "From Your Son" on MotoLyrics.com

In my youth
you held my hand
in later days
im holding yours
if i had half the strength you had i could take the pain away im not like you
but i hope i will be someday and when you're gone this promise i will make i promise to never come home even though this life is the only one i've ever known you never cease to beleive in me i can only think did i make you proud everything i've learned has been taught through you always be strong reach for those stars
chase those dreams

i can't forget
i won't regret
i'll feel no pain
i'll feel no pain

so if these words
are all i say
before you go
hear me
