22 years cursing at the sun battle scars remind me of the wars i never won don't listen to a thing that spills from these lips my lies piece like knives aiming for those empty eyes waiting for that gleam to fade awayx2

i blame my past for making me shitty but in truth im nothing but bitter i thrive on self pity call me selfish for wanting something more than a mediocre life don't blame me we never had a chance in a world of assholes the little things mean shit to me i want everything

everything

i wait for that gleam to fade away

i will never change

WHEN WE ALL LOSE
we'll go down in history as the biggest failure ever seen
