Don't give me those eyes
I don't need them right now I'd fix this fucking mess if i only knew how one more mistake
enoughs enough
you lost your faith
and these scars are adding up but we can't give in i was wrong
we've struggled and battled with this for so long i'll reach out and take you by the hand i promise to show you that i can so run this question through your head and keep asking

why do we do this to ourselves everyday another lesson learned give everything i have and get nothing in return
give everything
getting burned
