Tired of always saying sorry
It's just another fighting story
And I can barely walk a straight line
I'm tired of learning life the hard way
I wish that being strong was easy

But I wanted more this time
I was wrong it's hard to say
At least I learn from my mistakes
I would change everything
(Yeah, yeah)

'Cause I can't wait for the day
When finally I can say, and you'll believe it
I can change and now I mean it
And I will fight for a way to make up

For the mess that I've been leaving
A second chance is all I'm meaning
And anything I can do just to make it up to you
I would do anything, I'm dying to live again

I was such a fool to hurt you
'Cause you're the one I always turned to
When I'm going out of my mind
I just wiped a hand that feeds me
Instead of loving ones that need me

But I wanted more this time
I was wrong it's hard to say
At least I learn from my mistakes

I would change everything
(Yeah, yeah)

'Cause I can't wait for the day
When finally I can say, and you'll believe it
I can change and now I mean it
And I will fight for a way to make up

For the mess that I've been leaving
A second chance is all I'm meaning

And do anything I can do just to make it up to you
I would do anything, I'm dying to live again

I pray that you'll see what I've become
I would give it all away to write the wrongs I've done
I don't wanna fall for the same mistakes again

What's it gonna take for this misery to end?
Anything I can do just to make it up to you
I would change everything

'Cause I can't wait for the day
When finally I can say, and you'll believe it
I can change and now I mean it
And I will fight for a way to make up

For the mess that I've been leaving
A second chance is all I'm meaning
Anything I can do, I would change, I'm dying everyday
Everything I can do just to make it up to you
Everything I can do just to make it up to you
