I got something to tell you
About a reason for breathing
About a song and a season
When my father's coming home
Nobody said it was easy,
Nobody said you could please me
But then you looked down
With your big brown eyes
And your loving arms

CHORUS

I wanted to tell you I loved you
How hard I'm falling for you
You left me standing here out on my own

You loved me incompletely
And now I'm falling freely
You left me here but I am not alone

You're falling faster than angels
You're smiling higher than heaven
You only wish that on top of the world
You had one more swimming pool

They're kicking you all around
You never tasted so much ground
You only wish that for one more day
You were the coolest guy in school

CHORUS

I wanted to tell you I loved you
How hard I'm falling for you
You left me standing here out on my own

I loved you incompletely
And now I'm falling freely
You left me here but I am not alone

When I wake there's so much trouble
Morning comes and makes me double
When I'm breaking there's no time to run

So I'm on my way to me
