see i could spend forever here and never wanna stop cause baby you are making my day dont tell me what it takes my dear to keep you in one spot
im crazy good at finding a way for all of my days ill be brave ill be stronger and always keep a hand on my pride and if i build it with care it will last that much longer ill always give you somewhere to hide

ill give you shelter
out of the rain
ill make a good day
out of the pain
and if you got a long way down
ill feel the same
ill give you shelter
out of the rain

so let me kiss you head to toe upon this tabletop
cause baby you can have it your way ill keep you safe and warm you know im never gunna stop
cause babe i think we'll make it someday for all of my days
ill be happy to hold you and always go that extra mile and if we build it with care ill be there like i told you ill always give you reason to smile

out of the rain
oh ill make a good day
out of the pain
if you got a long way down
ill feel the same
ill give you shelter
out of the rain

when i get you alone

darling you satisfy me
im always at home
when its you standing by me dont give us away
baby pelase stay

out of the rain
ill make a good day
out of the pain
