Looking around but you don't ask yourself you come into town but your beside yourself you're askin me if i remember your name well your not my friend we'll never be the same

too late that's all you really wanted my world inside and out until you calm down change your mind and that's alright cuz i'm not the one to blame
my hurt inside and out until you
and that's alright cuz i'm not the one to blame no no looking around but you deny yourself come in to town but you don't act yourself you're asking me but i'm not the same i'm not the one who's gonna play your game late that's all you really wanted
