

Heed "Last Drop Of Blood"

Visit "Last Drop Of Blood" on MotoLyrics.com

In the end the measure of life is an endless flame,
Still burning.
And all the life, that counts down in time,
Neglects me.

In the end of life comes a change and the mystery
Is fading.
Far in the wastelands of aeon roams,
The mislead...

How can I, a shadow feed?
The stranger is, is the man within me.
Darkness here in shadows greed.
To strangers lust, yet, I gave last drop of blood.

Like a ghost inside of me of you and all around,
It's spreading.
See just how small it can seem to live,
Just breathe in...

How can I, a shadow feed?
The stranger is, is the man within me.
Darkness here in shadows greed.
To strangers lust, yet, I gave last drop of blood.

The stranger within me.
The shadows feed.
This change within me.
Can't make me stop to bleed.

How can I, a shadow feed?
The stranger is, is the man within me.
Darkness here in shadows greed.
To strangers lust, yet, I gave last drop of blood.

The stranger within me.
The shadows feed.
This change within me.
Can't make me stop to bleed.
