I was dragging my feet
Along that path I was walking
With no hope to defeat
No comfort in what I was lacking
I held my head up lookin' for love
Down lookin' under
Up lookin' above
I held my breath
I opened my eyes
& I saw you

I was just so lost
Until your love found me
My dreams come true
When your arms surround me
There's just no other
Place I'd rather be
I get warm inside
Thinking about your touch
& my fears subside
From lovin' you so much
Never before has anybody
Ever been close to meetin' my needs
I'm so glad your love found me

My vision became
Suddenly clear
Through your love glass
Perplexing thoughts
Once complex now easy at last
I held my head up lookin' for love
Down lookin' under
Up lookin' above
I held my breath
I opened my eyes
& I saw you

I was just so lost
Until your love found me
My dreams come true
When your arms around me

There's just no other
Place I'd rather be
I've been warm inside
Thinking about your touch
& my fears subside
From lovin' you so much
Never before has anybody
Ever come close to meetin' my needs
I'm so glad your love found me

I didn't know
Life could be like this
I couldn't think lips
Had such a kiss
I didn't have faith in someone else
But you proved me wrong
You & I belong
Together, together
Don't want
Another, another another
Let's stay
Together, together, together
Don't want

I was just so lost
My dreams come true
I get warm inside
& my fears subside
From lovin' you so much
Ever been close to meetin' my needs
I'm so glad your love found me
