Oh there's something 'bout a man in black
Makes me want to buy a cadillac,
Throw the top back
And roll down to Jackson town
I wanna be there on the stage with you
You and I could be the next rage, too
Hear the crowd roar,
Make 'em want more,
I'll kick the footlights out

I wanna love like Johnny and June
Rings of fire burnin' with you
I wanna walk the line,
Walk the line,
'Till the end of time
I wanna love,
Love ya that much
Cash it all in,
Give it all up,
And when you're gone
I wanna go, too
Like Johnny and June

I wanna hold you baby right or wrong
Build a world around a country song
Pray a sweet prayer,
Follow you there,
Down in history

I wanna love like Johnny and June
Rings of fire burnin' with you
I wanna walk the line,

Walk the line,
'Till the end of time
I wanna love,
Love ya that much,
Cash it all in,
Give it all up,
And when you're gone,
I wanna go, too
Like Johnny and June

Like Johnny and June

More than life itself
No-one else
This endless promise
They don't make love like that anymore
Is that too much to be askin' for?

I wanna love like Johnny and June
Rings of fire burnin' with you
I wanna walk the line,
Walk the line,
'Till the end of time
I wanna love,
Love ya that much
Cash it all in,
Give it all up,
And when you're gone,
I wanna go, too
Like Johnny and June
Like Johnny and June

And when there gonna be no tears to cry,
Only memories of our lives,
They'll remember, remember
A love like that.
