music & lyrics: F. Calluori

Visions and spectres of a dark night Moving like shadows before her eyes

She foresaw everything
Horrors, groans and tears
Are shaking the ground and the seas

pre-chorus:
From the battle-fields, war hymns arise
And the thirst for blood is beginning Look to the plain, bright troops are fighting for DOMINION, DOMINION...

chorus:
It's time to follow the symbols
Remember these words Stand by my side
It's time to follow the symbols
The prophecy is right... FOLLOW THE SIGNS
She saw the ravens of the War God Fly in the heavens - Prophets of war

She fortold everything
Fire, death and steel
The sparkling of swords and shields repeat chorus and pre-chorus

O EVIL MORTALS... Honour doesn't make you fight It's the shadow of thy hate
. The dark ghost of madness is filling they hearts
The thirst for conquest makes you blind

O cruel brothers, so you are attracted - By death and blood

solo / repeat chorus
