Show me your reaction
Maybe it is your awakening
In a broken hug, you see...

Show me your reaction
Maybe it is your awakening
And nobody let you see...

Beak the time
And describe what you feel
Are you still one sun
In a violent eclipse?

Let me fly through your valley of dreams
So that I can believe
That nobody let you see...
(What is appearing to me)

You're so dangerous 'cause you can't lie
You can penetrate my soul
Eye for a day, to catch everything around
You're the channel to let me know

Look to these eyes
Slide through the feelings

Face your face and taste what is happening
Taste the best to face what is in your head

You're so dangerous 'cause you can't lie
You can penetrate my soul
Eye for a day, to catch everything around
You're the channel to let me know

Ah, ah... Show me your reaction
