We Dream Awake

In the name of the faithful
In the name of the gentle folk you meet in the hollows
if you choose to follow
In the name of the dreaming
In the name of the hidden realms that wait for the morrow
To return in the morrow

All is calm
The time is right
Ready for day to dawn
A new new day is dawning
A new new day is dawning

We dream awake
We dream awake
We dream awake

In the name of the quickening
In the name of the shimmering
That lives in the heart and sings through the word
In the name of the resonance
In the name of that love essence
That breaks fears apart
And lights up the dark

All is calm
The time is right
Ready for day to dawn
A new new day is dawning
It's time to dream awake
A new new day is dawning
It's time to dream awake

It's time to dream awake
