"Queen For Tonight"

Just being here with you tonight, I'm a queen on a throne
And every time I hold you tight a palace is my home
Yeah, but will my kingdom turn to dust in the morning light
I am a queen for tonight (Queen for tonight) but will I have a king tomorrow? (Tomorrow)
Every kiss you're givin' me is a jewel in my crown
I'm as high and mighty as can be with the treasure I found
But will my castle tumble down in the morning light?
I am a queen for tonight (Queen for tonight) but will I have a king tomorrow? (Tomorrow)

You say that you belong to me and I rule the world
A queen in all her majesty, knowing I'm your girl
But will I wear a golden crown in the morning light?
I am a queen for tonight (Queen for tonight) but will I have a king tomorrow? (Tomorrow)
I am a queen for tonight (Queen for tonight) but will I have a king...
