I saw you shiver, your skin was plaster
I'll bring you water when you're sick We better go south, 'cause winter is coming and you look lonely, and i'm used up.

Ghost face
and my hands are confused and my mind is weakened but i'll give you everything
Ghost face
and I'm nothing to you, and i'm nothing to anyone but i'll give you
everything, i'll give you...

I saw the future, it was like a hammer
And now i'm senseless, I have no thoughts You're always going, I always stay here I guess it's better to leave things behind

Ghost face
and my hands are confused and my mind is weakened
but i'll give you everything
Ghost face
and I'm nothing to you, and i'm nothing to anyone but
i'll give you
everything, give you...

It takes a lot to wear me out
It takes a lot to wear me down

Ghost face
and my hands are confused and my mind is weakened
but i'll give you everything
Ghost face
and I'm nothing to you, and i'm nothing to anyone but
i'll give you
everything, i'll give you...
