Take a trip with me
Into the 21st century
I know what's on your mind
What will we find

As time goes on and on, will history repeat itself?
Will there be fast cars, pretty women, rock 'n' roll?
Well the future seems clear to me...

We'll still be running wild in the 21st century
We'll still be dancin' to some lowdown crazy beat
In some far out, far off distant galaxy
We'll still be running wild, running wild in the 21st century

New generation in the sun
Not too different from the last one
And Elvis lives and I know
Cause I heard it, I heard it on the radio

As time goes on and on, will history repeat itself?
Will there be fast cars, pretty women, rock 'n' roll?
Don't need a crystal ball to see...

We'll still be running wild in the 21st century
We'll still be dancin' to some lowdown crazy beat
In some far out, far off distant galaxy
We'll still be running wild, running wild...

As time goes on and on
A boy grows up to be a man
Everyone his father's son
And history repeats itself...

Don't need a crystal ball to see
Cause the future's clear to me...

Yeah, yeah, yeah, the future's clear to me...

We'll still be running wild in the 21st century
Running wild, running wild...

As time goes on and on, will history repeat itself?
Running wild in the 21st century...
