Give me some kind of hope
Give me some kind of hope
Give me one honest lie to promote
Give me one honest lie to promote
And try to think better days when you choke
And try to think better days when you choke
When blood for profit gain wins your vote
When blood for profit gain wins your vote
And you can fake smiles to make you feel

When it's time to break the deal
And you can fake smiles to make you feel
Cos it's easy now, I'm easy now
When it's time to break the deal
And buy a new disease
Cos it's easy now, I'm easy now
When it pays to sell the cure
And buy a new disease
Cos it's easy now, I'm easy now
When it pays to sell the cure

It's easy now, I'm easy now
Cos I can climb mountains

I can spit further than you can hurl
Cos I can climb mountains
And I can swallow failure just to learn
I can spit further than you can hurl
And I can build bridges from what you burn
And I can swallow failure just to learn
And you can take smiles to make you feel
And I can build bridges from, what you burn
When it's time to close the deal
And you can fake smiles to make you feel
Cos it's easy now, I'm easy now
When it's time to close the deal
And start a new disease
And it's easy now, I'm easy now
When it pays to sell the cure
And buy a new disease
Cos it's easy now, I'm easy now
When it pays to sell the cure

It's easy now, I'm easy now
Cos I can run I can hide

I can take a world of pain
Cos I can run, I can hide
In a stride..

I can take a world of pain in a stride
And I don't need fairy tales to pretend
And I don't need fairy tales to pretend
And I don't need heroes to depend on
And I don't need heroes to depend on
I can heal, I can regenerate
I can heal, I can regenerate
I can give birth and I can meditate
I can give birth and I can meditate
And I can hate I can love I can fuck
And I can hate, I can love, I can fuck
I can see the view below from the top
I can see the view below from the top

With arms around it
I'll take the summit
With arms around it
I'm home
