Trusting in our machine
We head for oblivion

Raising the first alarm
Red light, red light
This is a warning sound
Red light, red light

There's a haze
Coming down upon us
Every tribe for themselves
United in chaos

Raising the first alarm
Red light, red light
This is a warning sound
Red light, red light

Invading force alert
Sirens wailing
Air raiders in the sky
Circling

Raising the first alarm
This is a warning sound
Raising the first alarm
This is a warning sound

Now the power's out
All that I can see
Is the gleaming white
Of your retina

Light the path for me
Blaze the trail again
Lead the exodus
Back inside the cage

Invading force alert
Sirens wailing
Air raiders in the sky
Circling

Raising the last alarm
Red light, red light
This is a warning sound
Red light, red light

Invading force alert
Sirens wailing
Air raiders in the sky
Circling
