We better get injected
We better get injected
Just to combat our demented ways
Just to combat our demented ways
If you don't care don't panic
If you don't care don't panic
The after shock bite is just a passing phase
The after shock is just a passing phase
Do you know me my brother
Do you know me my brother
Is my blood as bona fide as yours
Is my blood as bona fide as yours
Has the devial got my number
Has the devil got my number
Did I get stuck at the get go
Did I get stuck at the get go
I never thought I'd reach the end
I never thought I'd reach the end
I never thought I'd find a gap
I never thought I'd find a gap
I never thought I'd reach the end
I never thought I'd reach the end
I found the point of no return
I found the point of no return
So here I am now, I'm ready
So here I am now, I'm ready
I've been waiting for the sky to gall
I've been wating for the sky to fall
You that that hell's got no fury
You know that hell's got no fury
Like a man too scared to just back down
Like a man too scared to just back down
We don't want a peace and quite
We don't want piece and quiet
If it means walking unidentified
If it means walking unindentified
Divided here together
Divided here together
I'll make my own way to the exit
I'll make my own way to the exit
I never thought I'd reach the end
I never thought I'd reach the end

I never thought I'd find the gap
I never thought I'd find a gap
I never thought I'd reach the end
I never thought I'd reach the end
I'm ready to surrender
I'm ready to surrender.
