Hell Rell:

Move it, bounce it, shake that ass
There's some ballas in here
Move it, bounce it, shake that ass
There's some hustlers in here
Move it, bounce it, shake that ass
There's some money in here
It's some money in here
You know what it is

Verse 1

Young Dro:

Okay, yellow ice, foreign car
Foreign broad, porn star
Y'all pussy niggaz lost like you forgot your Onstar 26 inches, oh, put that on my orange car
When it come to bread bitch I'm stacked up like a loanshark
Remy and Patron, squad, Grand Hustle eat the plate
Dipset bitch, I'm 'bout to pull up with that Eagle yeah
I'm hard, that's what my peoples say
Don't make me bring them dumpers out
Benz color brusselsprouts
Hoes I don't give a fuck about Lord of the Rings bitch don't make me pull my knuckles out
Charm yellow like pee, rims rollin' like E
Bitches holdin' my hard, bitches rollin' my weed
Karats roll Lilo, Hell Rell Casino
And when I'm in the Lamborghini I'm Gambino
My slugs blow a nigga bald head like khemo
And when I'm in New York, they holla at me like Nino
Ask the Flintstones, I'm a Don like Dino

Hell Rell:

I might stop)
I'm rimmed up (I rimmed up)
Had some Guccis on, took 'em off, now I'm Timbed up
Got some gangstas with me, there's money on deck
It's Dipset, and you know what we wanna see

Move it, bounce it, shake that ass
There's some ballas in here
Move it, bounce it, shake that ass
There's some hustlers in here
Move it, bounce it, shake that ass
There's some money in here
It's some money in here
You know what it is

Verse 2

Hell Rell:

Tell these niggaz don't touch you if they ain't tippin'
Tell a bitch don't criticize you if they ain't strippin'
It's just a way of livin', now move that ass, shake that ass
Move it, bounce it, shake it baby, drop it to the flo'
If you throw it in his face mama then he gon' spend some mo'
She ain't never had a job, she ain't never work before
But her ass crazy fat, she know how to work the pole
She smoke a lil' purp, and she do it after work
And she party every night and talk all day on the chirp Want me to come scoop her like her middle name is Haagen Daaz
Yeah I brought the whole clique baby meet the entourage
I live a fast life, see the wrist, that's ice
Bling be a part of it if you can shake that ass right
If they still sellin' champagne, I'm still buyin' it
The money over here baby, tell me who you flyin' with
