Out of time, out of tune
Born sucking on a silver spoon
Trying hard for the best
You don't come close but I can stand the test

Here's a hint here's a clue
I'm the wolf in the movie 'bout you
So pull a knife but I stand on it's edge
I'm the allegiance, the one that you pledge

You wanna rise to the occasion
But there's nothing to prove
You'll be two steps back
While I'm on the move

And it makes you feel envious
You can try but you won't nail it down
Envious
You turn it up but it don't make no sound

Envious
It's good looking at the first glance
But you' re so envious
And you don't stand a chance

You got the axe, I got the licks
I've got the drugs but, baby, you've got the ticks
If you're a word not worthy to mention
I'm the teacher and you've got detention

You wanna rise to the occasion
But there's nothing to prove
You'll be two steps back
While I'm on the move

And it makes you feel envious
You can try but you won't nail it down
Envious
You turn it up but it don't make no sound

Envious
It's good looking at the first glance

But you' re so envious
And you don't stand a chance

You pale in comparison
But what can you do
I admit it, I look better beside you

You will cry as I laugh
'Cause you're a boy and I'm a man and a half
You'll always be the ugly nothing and I the sweat real
I feel no pity but I know how you feel

You wanna rise to the occasion
But there's just nothing to prove
You'll be two steps back
While I'm on the move

And it makes you feel envious
You can try but you won't nail it down
Envious
You turn it up but it don't make no sound

Envious
It's good looking at first glance
But you're so envious
And you don't stand a chance

Envious
Envious
Envious
