Sure as time is a teacher
Confusion makes it so hard to tell
It's bound to be hard to be her
But it seems she's the best part of hell

Astray in my lady's mansion
Lost in the chambers of her heart
Blown away beyond comprehension
A love lost to magic and art

You weep and dwell on our loss
Stand denied by the nails in the cross
And I for one, you for two
Knows no one's gonna do it for you

Circle of salt in the candle light
Breaks softly in the breeze
The demons stayed back by the freezing night
The gilded dawn broke through with ease

You weep and dwell on our loss
Stand denied by the nails in the cross
And I for one, you for two
Knows no one's gonna do it for you

You want it bad, you want it, oh so much
There are some things that you should know
Somethings that someone like you just cannot touch

You weep and dwell on our loss
Stand denied by the nails in the cross
And I for one, you for two
Knows no one's gonna do it for you
No one's gonna do it for you
Yeah, no one's gonna do it for you
