This is December
That I'll always remember
We were trying to escape the cold
We had everything we wanted
In that hotel by the water
The reality set in as we left for home

So I'll put this car in drive
And I'll drive straight through the night
To find you
I'll find you

This plane ride home is killing me
I wish that you were here to see
I'm not the same without you here
2, 000 miles that separate
These two hearts from beating in the same state

So I'll put this car in drive
And I'll drive straight through the night
To find you
I'll find you

So I'll put this car in drive
And I'll drive straight through the night
To find you
I'll find you

With nothing to go on I am on my way (I'll find you)
And I won't stop until I see your face (I'll find you)
So I pull up to this plain white house
Jump out of the car as you come running out

So I'll put this car in drive
And I'll drive straight through the night
To find you
I'll find you

So I'll put this car in drive (I'll find you)
And I'll drive straight through the night (I'll find you)
So I'll put this car in drive (I'll find you)
And I'll drive straight through the night (I'll find you)
