You know I'm not one to jump to conclusions
But I feel like this is goodbye for the last time
Every way that I view this
The arrows all point to the scene of the last crime
And I can't breathe
These words I cannot say are choking me tonight
And I don't know how I'm supposed to make this right
Do you care that I'm alive?

When morning comes
Will we start over
Or will we spend this night alone

This tie's been tied and we're moving on
I finally realize that you're gone for good
Do you care at all that I'm a wreck?
... without you here

When morning comes
Will we start over
Or will we spend this night alone
Only time will tell
If we will make it
Here comes the "click" and dial tone

This phone call goes, it goes to show
Just how far apart we've grown
And we both know...

That I'm not one to jump to conclusions
But I feel like this is goodbye for the last time

When morning comes
Will we start over
Or will we spend this night alone
Only time will tell
If we will make it
Here comes the "click" and dial tone
