She cut right through me, like a diamond
In the rough, she caught my eye by surprise
Well these things are never easy
Realizing you've found love at first sight

Danger Danger
I'm in love with a perfect stranger
I don't know her name but she means everything to me
Over my shoulder, I can tell that I don't know her
This feeling's getting stronger with every step I take

Just be there for me too, cause I would die to be with you
Every glance you give me is one I can't refuse My heart it beats inside my chest, with all these things I must confess
The truth is you're the best thing that's happened to me, happened to me

Danger Danger
I'm in love with a perfect stranger
I don't know her name but she means everything to me
Over my shoulder, I can tell that I don't know her
This feeling's getting stronger with every step I take

Just let me know, you'll be there for me too
I'd wait forever, just to be with you
To know that you care, you'll never disappear
Everything about you makes me
It makes me want to change

Danger Danger
I'm in love with a perfect stranger
Danger Danger
I'm in love with a perfect stranger
But now I know her name and she means everything to me
So I say, now that I've found her
I'm so glad that I know her
Cause when I hold her, all my problems
They seem to, to float away
They seem to float away
