

Brutal Truth "Humanity's Folly" rape the land, man's progress skeletons, plague the earth investing life, on man's greatest joke in the end, you'll find there's no hope there's no hope

I've tried to lie poison

crossed the line, too many times cross the line and you'll find evolution - progress blown open infestation - wastes away our downfall casualties, is what we'll get centuries of ill-neglect exposed us to our plague for our pain, insert your gain race against the laws, clear thoughts come in one shot why not?

toxic pollution invades the earth for man's ignorance, we will pay global transformation, you'll see, watch it burn in the end, we're to blame, ha, ha man's greatest joke
