When my voice hits the air
It forms a conversation
We talk and talk, you never listen
My voice is dying out

Oh, they can't stop us now
We're going as fast as we can
Oh, they can't stop us now
We'll land in the water

The lights go out and we turn on our flashlights
And it's still hard to see, BUT, but it doesn't bother me
I'm fine
With our backs turned we see without our eyes

Forty five survived, but we're alive so we Forty five survived, but we're alive so we

Forty five survived, but we're alive so we Act alive
Ninety nine have died, but we're alive!
Ninety nine have died, but we're alive!
Ninety nine have died, but we're alive!
Pretend to die

I'll try but I know she's watching us. I'll try but I know she's watching,
US.
Let's dive so we can get away, swim fast or they'll take us,
Away.

I'll give you my strength.
I'll give you my strength.
I'll give you my strength.
I'll give you my strength.
