You want to play? Yea I like to play.
I don't know the rules to your game.
It's a lot harder than you think.
I know you're lying when you blink.

Just go away, hell, go away
I like you better when you lie and act this way
Don't worry baby I'm here to stay
I promise that I'll never never go away.

Where's the boy with the laser eyes?
Where's the boy who will never ever lie?
This seems as a brighter day.

And still, the rain won't go away.

You're just a sad song who rots in my dreams.

But I'm yours forever
And I couldn't be happier
This makes me feel
So much stronger

Light up the sky with your bright laser eyes.
Bring us to life, with your red chroma mind.
Light up the sky with your bright laser eyes.
Bring us to life, with your red chroma mind.
