Contessa I confess right now. You've bested me, taken me down. I parried way to late to see, you run your blade through me. Run your blade through me please.

You and I, enemies. Stabbed through chest, on my knees. For tonight I refuse to die. The fright dries right out of your eyes. A suture please remove this poison quill.

I will not lose gold medal. I will return to settle the death you gave to me, oh so graciously.

You and I, enemies. Stabbed through chest, on my knees. For tonight I refuse to die. The fright dries right out of your eyes. A suture please remove this poison quill.

Tonight, tonight, tonight, I refuse to die
