If I told you alright, would you be back again?
'Cause if you told me tonight I'd be your now and then
But maybe baby you might be messing with me when It's better if we just pretend that
One night's alright so come on come on come on

Yeah it's alright, Yeah it's easy
Going all night Just to please me
Try to hold on But it's so wrong
'Cause it feels like Chasing Satellites

Baby baby alright it's heating up again
And maybe maybe I might be chasing bitter ends
So tell me tell me you're likely messing with me when It's easier to just pretend that

One night's alright so come on come on come on

Yeah it's alright, Yeah it's easy
Going all night Just to please me
Try to hold on But it's so wrong
'Cause it feels like Chasing Satellites

Tell me now do you wanna be up late
Show me how yeah 'cause baby I can't wait
One more time and we'll let it be gone
I want it I need it but you string me along

Yeah it's alright, Yeah it's easy
Going all night Just to please me
Try to hold on But it's so wrong
'Cause it feels like Chasing Satellites
