Back then
When we were young
Who thought this day
Would ever come
After all this time

Some dreams
Are coming true
Some of us just Can't get through
After all this time

And all my friends
Are trying to reach some end
Trying to pretend
That we're alright now
I see her in these lights
As the city ignites

There you and I
Are standing still
The year's desolving
Into stronger will
After all this time

And everything
We torn apart
We built back
With stronger hearts
After all this time

I'm so afraid
Of how long I made you stay
The choice's we make
But in the end, dear
Who cares who did it right
If only we have survived

The things I've seen
So far away
Are getting closer

Every day
After all this time

Now I want
When this is done
To say I tried
To say we had fun
After all this time

Watched in fright
In someway some piece of mind
'Cause all of the time
It's always been right here
Nothing will be the same
We keep playing the game

Here comes a girl
Her eyes like stars
Now she's given me
A fearless heart
After all this time
