I ain't trying to jump a gun and admit
That she is the one that I've been looking for Something about her that makes her different (makes her different)

It's just hard to put a finger on it
I'm seeing things in her I've never seen before
I can't deny the fact that the truth is (oh...)
Like a precious, she got me sweatin' up (oh...)
It feels so good to be falling in love
So extra extra read all about it
I'm telling the world

Chorus
I'm gonna tell the world
I got a new woman
Have you seen her? Have you seen her?
I wanna do right about this one
She's a keeper, she's a keeper
Don't wonder if you heard
I got a new woman
Have you seen her? Have you seen her?
I'm gonna do right about this one
She's a keeper (yeah...)

Ain't try to pull a false alarm
This ain't no drill, I'm so for real
I'm letting all my bunnies go
With no needing, running with no
Pocket full of dime (im'ma give her ninety-nine)
It's more than giving her a special ringtone
More than putting her on my spaces
My number one, extra extra, read all about it
Im'ma tell the world
(Repeat chorus)

Oh, she's so beautiful
I can't help but talk about her
Her personality is so wonderful
Ain't nothin' I can't talk about
Little arguments ain't gon' change

How I feel about her
I'm gonna tell the world
(Repeat chorus 2x)

Have you seen her? Have you seen her?
I hope you meet her, I hope you meet her
I think I need her, I think I need her
She's a keeper, she's a keeper

Have you seen her? Have you seen her?
I hope you meet her, I hope you meet her
I think I need her, I think I need her
Man, im'ma keep her (keep her, oh...)

I ain't trying to jump a gun and admit
That she is the one that I've been looking for Something about her that makes her different (makes her different)
