You promised me starry night skies
They just remind me of your shining bright eyes
I'm missing your voice at night time
Sepa-separation seems, seems a sad crime

But don't, don't, don't think, think, think I forgot you, you, you
Are, are, are oh, so sweet I, I, I, I, I knew

If only you were here
(Things would be more magical)
If I was there
(Right now I'd be more radical)
You're so not near
(I'm wishing I could place a call)
And feel closer to you, oh

Miles of air and road and land
You separate me from all my plans
We're havin', havin', havin', havin' fun
But something-something tell me I miss someone

I hope, hope, hope you didn't forget me
I couldn't forget you
The whole time I always knew, I knew

If only you were here
(Things would be more magical)
If I was there
(Right now I'd be more radical)
You're so not near
(I'm wishing I could place a call)
And feel closer to you, oh

Say that you're into me
Let me know how it will be
If you don't know just say so
I'll wait 'till the perfect time
Think of all the perfect lines
I'll make sure if I let you know

We've got movies on our list to see

Things to do, just you and me
Calls to make from here and there and back
We've got fun to have and days to spend
Songs to sing or just pretend
At least for now just keep things right on track

Say that you're into me
Let me know how it will be
If you don't know just say so
I'll wait 'till the perfect time
Think of all the perfect lines
I'll make sure if I let you know

Say that you're into me
Let me know how it will be
I'll make sure if I let you know
I'll wait 'till the perfect time
Think of all the perfect lines
I'll make sure if I let you know
