Born into somewere unseen and unknown
Just like a worder so small and alone
Take me away into your innocent dreams
Maybe I'd see what it all means

A million to one
You will lose it all
A million to one you'll be falling
Down o where I am
An unholy man
A million to one you'll be falling

It's so sad and so true
But what can I do
Owly a few years then it's up to you
To care for yourself,
I hope I gave good advice
For all your life how to survive

A million to one
You will lose it all
A million to one you'll be falling
Down o where I am
An unholy man
A million to one you'll be falling

A million to one
You will lose it all
A million to one you'll be falling
Down o where I am
An unholy man
A million to one you'll be falling
