

Helloween

"Goin' Home"

Visit "Goin' Home" on MotoLyrics.com

You think I could be the one to look inside your mind
I don't think well have the time, so let us get in line
Another town, another bed, another thing to go
By now I learned to take it cool, but I don't wanna know

My head is empty, all the stories that I've known I've told
The situation I escaped from, now it looks like gold
Anyway and anyhow we did it, it was good
But now I take the time to think 'bout everything I should

'Cause after this I'm gone, the show is done
No other town or bed that lies ahead
I'll go home to what I know
I'll go home, home to you

By the time that you think 'bout it twice
No spotlight makes you stay
By the time that you feel you don't know
You have to go

The plane is ready in my head, so many things to do
A few more hours till it's over I reach out for you
A kind of peace inside is growing, thinking 'bout the shows
Until the next time I'll be so much better, yes I know

Now this is it I'm gone, the show is done
No other town or bed that lies ahead
I'll go home to what I know
I'll go home, home to you

I'll go home to what I know
I'll go home, home to you

Visit Helloween page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.