I still remember every hour
Every seconds has been ours
Far away from any burden
We met eyes without a curtain
Headless into a new sensation
Whether brain nor fear or patience
Careless we had a game to play
You crossed my way for twenty days
Why don't you just heal
The yearning that I feel?
Hey, what we called a game
Is more than just handful of pain
We go the wrong ways
Cause I believe it's more than just handful of pain
We go the wrong ways
Cause I believe it's more than just handful of pain
We're different colours, different nature
Both we were like pupil and teacher
It's a puzzle with two pieces
Still not done 'cause one still misses
Helpless I go through unknown stages
A chapter of life which has missing pages
Torture's not only physical
It pains unbound
Way, way down
Why don't you just heal
The yearning that I feel?
Hey, I believe what we called a game
Is more than just handful of pain
We go the wrong ways
Cause I believe it's more than just handful of pain
We go the wrong ways
Cause I believe it's more than just handful of pain
