Each time when one more year was over
You refused to hear Heaven's best sounds
And the happiness in your heart's been set lower
You're searchin' for friends
But no one seemed to be around

You merely should think of the good times
'Cos there are so many ways you can go
Take a look at yourself
You're still very young
And big aims always take very long

Now it's time for happiness
Stay hard and trust your fate
Don't forget you're somethin' else
You'll never be to late
Trust your father's mighty spell
You'll never be alone
Fate will always turn out well
And you'll be number one

Shout at the world don't care what they say
'Cos your life is now here and today
Luck is there everywhere
Go on reap it's goods that's the way
You wanna have truth relief from your pain
My life takes its toll again and again
Don't fear the night
Your future is paid
And the tracks to your aims are laid

Now it's time for happiness
Stay hard and trust your fate
Don't forget you're somethin' else
You'll never be to late
Trust your father's mighty spell
You'll never be alone
Fate will always turn out well
And you'll be number one

Aha

Now it's time for happiness
Stay hard and trust your fate
Don't forget you're somethin' else
You'll never be too late
Trust your father's mighty spell
You'll never be alone
Fate will always turn out well
And you'll be number one

Now it's time for happiness
Stay hard and trust your fate
Don't forget you're somethin' else
You'll never be too late

Trust your father's mighty spell
(Trust your father's mighty)
You'll never be alone
(Spell)
Fate will always turn out well
(Fate will always turn)
And you'll be number one
(Out well)

Now it's time for happiness
(Now it's time)
Stay hard and trust your fate
(For happiness)
Don't forget you're somethin' else
(Don't forget you're)
You'll never be too late
(Somethin' else)

Trust your father's mighty spell
(Trust your father's mighty)
You'll never be alone
(Spell)
Fate will always turn out well
(Fate will always turn)
