Let's see

Ah

Come on

What is?

All you sight, you have seen

Where you are, already been

Then again, you go through

Occasion Avenue

Sister, the day you sell your skin

(The gold of night is the gold of the blind)

Sister, that day your soul gives in

(You'll never find what you left behind)

Ohh, no matter what they do

Ohh, you've got to go straight through

Brother, dare not look left or right

(Coaxing your eyes, poisoning your mind)

Brother, don't stop or you must fight

(No indulgence or it's death you find)

Ohh, you may not leave with doubt

Ohh, you may not take it to

Occasion Avenue

Follow your heart

(Occasion Avenue)

Follow your truth

(Occasion Avenue)

Follow the path that shines for you

On Occasion Avenue

How far you go?

(Occasion Avenue)

How good you do?

(Occasion Avenue)

Uncovers the prize or rebears you

On Occasion Avenue

Domini, domini
(Occasion Avenue)
Domini sancti
Satani, satani
(Occasion Avenue)
Satani mundi

Will there be tomorrow?
Will there be the stars?
Will there be a future?
Time beats in our hearts
Or will there be the fire
Branding us his mark?

I pray for all us people
Trying to solve the riddle
I don't know where we're going
I don't know if we're being true
(Occasion Avenue, Occasion Avenue)

Precious is your taking for a little bit of faking
For a tiny slight deception for some insincere affection

{Sentenced to 16 years
For marriage imposture and order of murder to his current wife
Whose life assurance is worth one million pounds}

Much will be your power by the essence of a flower
By seducement and cold rapture, by abusing mother nature

{Murdered close to Old Berlin's Checkpoint Charlie
Police assumes just one more execution
By competing drug cartels}

Great will be your status when you know how to lick
anus
When you lie and swindle ruthless and your biggest hero's Judas

{Committed suicide in his New York penthouse
He leaves no dependant so stay tuned for the latest news of
Where do all the millions go}

Will there be tomorrow?
Will there be the stars?
Will there be a future?
Time beats in our hearts

Will there still be laughter?
Will there be relief?
Will there be religion?
Will there be belief?

Will you see your people
From your former lives?
Will you know them this time?
Will you win the prize?

I pray for all us people
Trying to solve the riddle
I don't know where we're going
I don't know if we're being true
(Occasion Avenue)

Mother, I dream of my last life
(You'll never find what you left behind)
Mother, I killed you with my knife

Ohh, we got to make it through
Ohh, Occasion Avenue

Follow your heart
(Occasion Avenue)
Follow your truth
(Occasion Avenue)
Follow the path that shines for you
On Occasion Avenue

How far you go?
(Occasion Avenue)
How good you do?
(Occasion Avenue)
Uncovers the prize or rebears you
On Occasion Avenue

Domini, domini
(Occasion Avenue)
Domini sancti
Satani, satani
(Occasion Avenue)
Satani mundi
