[Music: A. Deris, S. Gerstner / Lyrics: A. Deris]

Think you're awake
The night was long
Don't be afraid
A new day is born
Just open your eyes
And look around
Can't see a thing
But still hear the sounds
Remember if you have (?)
Say the words
And You'll be free
Run run run
Say the name of your enemies
Run run run
Lost in light for eternity
Remember the words
And you'll be free
Toss and turn
Your sheet's all in sweat
Poison of fear
Already raised your head
The longer you wait
The deeper you fall
Come to the deamons
You're scared to call
